The structure consists of self-supporting diamond shape panel system. The form is made from many small elliptical element.

The variants of shape are also designed digitally, Each of them is hand-assembled in a unique way.

The repetitive overlapping structure of the assembled elements gives a very exciting plastic surface, generating a playful light and shadow effect.

Lamps are made of very thin (0,3 mm), white, translucent plastic, and thus- despite of the size of the individual elements- they are relatively light (ca. 1 kg, depending on the shape).
